

New York Consolidated Laws, Not-For-Profit Corporation Law - NPC § 717. Duty of directors and officers

(a) Directors and officers shall discharge the duties of their respective positions in good faith and with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances. The factors set forth in subparagraph one of paragraph \(e\) of section 552 (Standard of conduct in managing and investing an institutional fund), if relevant, must be considered by a governing board delegating investment management of institutional funds pursuant to section 514 (Delegation of investment management). For purposes of this paragraph, the term institutional fund is defined in section 551 (Definitions).

(b) In discharging their duties, directors and officers, when acting in good faith, may rely on information, opinions, reports or statements including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:

- (1) one or more officers or employees of the corporation, whom the director believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented,
- (2) counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters which the directors or officers believe to be within such person's professional or expert competence or
- (3) a committee of the board upon which they do not serve, duly designated in accordance with a provision of the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws, as to matters within its designated authority, which committee the directors or officers believe to merit confidence, so long as in so relying they shall be acting in good faith and with that degree of care specified in paragraph (a) of this section.

Persons shall not be considered to be acting in good faith if they have knowledge concerning the matter in question that would cause such reliance to be unwarranted.

Persons who so perform their duties shall have no liability by reason of being or having been directors or officers of the corporation.
